The Domestic Violence Notification

The Federal Gun Control Act as amended makes it unlawful for any person convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence to ship, transport, possess or receive firearms or ammunition. It is also unlawful for any person to sell or otherwise dispose of a firearm or ammunition to any person knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that the recipient has been convicted of a misdemeanor crime of domestic violence.

A misdemeanor crime of domestic violence is defined as an offense under federal or state law which contains as an element, the use or attempted use of physical force, or the threatened use of a deadly weapon, committed by a current or former spouse, parent or guardian of the victim, by a person with whom the victim shares a child in common, by a person who has cohabitated with the victim as a spouse, parent, or guardian, or by a person similarly situated to a spouse, parent or guardian of the victim.

The GCA applies without regard to whether Massachusetts law labels such offense as a “domestic violence” misdemeanor. For example, if a person were convicted of misdemeanor simple assault involving one of the aforementioned persons this would disqualify such person from legally possessing firearms or ammunition. Additionally it applies to convictions occurring before the law’s effective date, as well as future convictions.

Therefore, although you may be qualified under Massachusetts Law to receive a firearms license, you MAY be disqualified from legally possessing a firearm.
