Barnstable Police Chief Paul MacDonald and District Attorney Michael O'Keefe announced today that Barnstable Police responded to a report of a shooting at 30 Otis Road, Hyannis at approximately 1:20 pm today.

As they arrived, multiple gunshots were heard. Barnstable Police observed two males exit the house and a third male running from the house. After a pursuit, all three subjects were apprehended by Barnstable Police Detectives and Patrol Units. Guns and money were recovered in the vicinity of the suspects.

Upon entry into the house, a male identified as Andrew Stanley of Hyannis, DOB 12/21/84, was found shot to death.

Under arrest are: Eddie Mack of Hyannis and Roxbury, DOB 9/8/85; Kieko Thomas of Hyannis, DOB 10/30/91; and David Evans of Boston, DOB 10/1/85. All three are charged with Armed Robbery and Murder. The three individuals will be brought to Barnstable District Court to be arraigned on Thursday, July 12th.

The case remains under investigation by the Barnstable Police Department and the State Police Detectives Unit attached to the District Attorney's Office.
