PRESS RELEASE

November 3, 2012

On November 1, 2012 members of the Barnstable Police Department Patrol Force responded to Hinckley Rd. for a reported domestic violence call where the suspect, 20 year old TYLER DICKSON of Hyannis, was allegedly smashing out the windows of his mother's car with a tire iron. Upon arrival Patrol Officer Joshua Maloney observed a distraught party in the front yard telling him the DICKSON had fled the area as the officers arrived.

Patrol Officer Maloney learned that DICKSON had not only caused major damage to his mother's vehicle with the tire iron, he had also physically assaulted his mother. DICKSON allegedly struck his mother and knocked her to the ground while she was holding DICKSON's 2 year old son. Officers from the day shift were able to set up a parameter while awaiting K-9 Officer Jackson to arrive with his partner Elvis. A K-9 track from the crime scene led officers to a shed located down the street from the assault. DICKSON was found hiding in the shed and as apprehended by K-9 Elvis.

DICKSON was later booked at the Barnstable Police Headquarters where he was charged with RESISTING ARREST, DOMESTIC ASSAULT AND BATTERY, and INJURY TO REAL OR PERSONAL PROPERTY.

If you have any questions regarding this incident please contact Lt. David Cameron at 508-778-3807.
