PRESS RELEASE

TWO HYANNIS MEN ARRESTED FOR COCAINE TRAFFICKING

On 10/16/12, Barnstable and Yarmouth Narcotics Detectives completed a three month cocaine distribution investigation which resulted in the arrests of Angel Cordero (age 33) and Paul Jennette (age 57). During the investigation, Detectives made undercover purchases of cocaine from Cordero in Hyannis. Detectives also learned that Cordero was being driven to Boston by Jennette to obtain his cocaine.

During the early morning hours of 10/16, Detectives initiated surveillance on both Cordero and Jennette in Hyannis. Detectives subsequently followed the two suspects from Hyannis to Boston and back. At approximately 1145AM, a motor vehicle stop was conducted on Yarmouth Rd in Hyannis. A subsequent search by a Mashpee PD drug detection dog, resulted in the seizure of approximately 79 plastic baggies of crack cocaine. The street value of the cocaine is approximately $5000.00. Both Cordero and Jennette were arrested and charged with Conspiracy to Violate the Controlled Substance Act and Trafficking in Cocaine (18-36 grams). If you have any questions please contact Detective Lieutenant Sean Balcom at 508-328-0741 or balcoms@barnstablepolice.com.
