PRESS RELEASE

11/14/12

Three Arrested in Connection with Fire at Mckeon Field in Hyannis

Barnstable Police arrest 3 suspects for allegedly starting a fire that burned down the announcer's booth at Marshall J. Lopes Field in Hyannis.

On 11/14/12 at approximately 0830 hours, Barnstable Police responded to a structure fire at Marshall J. Lopes Field at 365 Old Colony Rd. Upon arrival, a two story snack bar/storage shed adjacent to the field was on fire. Police received a report that 2 males and a female were seen fleeing the scene moments after the fire started. Police located the three individuals on Main St., and one of the males was not wearing any shoes. They were positively identified as the persons that had fled the fire scene. The three suspects were Katie Lennon and Ivan Parker of Falmouth and Darren Schuyler of Mashpee. All three subjects later confessed to illegally entering the building on the prior evening and stated that the fire had started from a discarded match.

During an interview of the suspects at the police station, the department's Arson investigator, Det. John York, recognized both Lennon and Parker as the male and female that had recently been caught on video using a females stolen credit card at numerous stores along Main St. Hyannis on 11/3/12. When confronted with evidence of these crimes, Lennon and Parker further confessed to using the stolen credit card to purchase items ranging from fast food to a skateboard and blue jeans.

18 year old Ivan Parker and 17 year old Katie Lennon were charged with B&E Night Time Intent to Commit a Felony, Burning Personal Property, Unlawful Use of Credit Card over $250, Larceny of Property Single Scheme Over $250 and Forgery. Furthermore, Parker has been arrested three times in the last six days for additional crimes ranging from shoplifting to assault with a knife.

18 year old Darren Schuyler was charged with B&E Night Time Intent to Commit a Felony and Burning Personal Property. All three suspects were arraigned in Barnstable District Court on this date and are being held pending a hearing on Thursday.
