Barnstable Police Department Press Release

April 3rd, 2013

23 Year Old Centerville Female Arrested on Drug Charges

On 4/2/13, the Barnstable Police Narcotics and Street Crimes Detectives were conducting surveillance in the Cape Cod Mall parking lot regarding an ongoing drug investigation. At this time, detectives observed Jordan Robinson, a 23 year old female from Centerville, get into a Nissan occupied by two unknown males. Detectives then approached the Nissan and discovered Robinson counting U.S. currency in the rear of the car, while the other two males attempted to hand her more money. All three occupants were removed from the Nissan, and the males admitted that they were attempting to purchase a quantity of oxycodone pills from Robinson. A 30 mg oxycodone pill was dropped on the pavement by Robinson after she exited the Nissan.

Although she denied having any more drugs on her, Robinson was transported to the Barnstable Police Facility, where Mashpee Police Officer Assad and his K9 partner Lola detected narcotics in Robinson's bra. Robinson then reluctantly handed detectives a sandwich bag containing fifty three 30 mg oxycodone tablets valued at over $2000. Detectives also seized $1065 from Robinson as a result of the narcotics investigation. Robinson is currently on probation in Barnstable District Drug Court. She was held without bail at on 4/3/13.
