Barnstable Police Department Press Release December 23rd, 2014

5th Subject Arrested in the Shanghai Investigation

During the last three (3) months, the Barnstable Street Crime Unit (SCU) conducted an investigation into the distribution of heroin and cocaine from inside the Shanghai restaurant, 11 Ridgewood Avenue, Hyannis. The investigation revealed that numerous subjects involved in the distribution of narcotics in and around Hyannis were frequenting the Shanghai restaurant. The drug sales many times were very blatant and out in the open. The SCU made eleven (11) narcotics purchases inside the restaurant involving eight (8) subjects. All the subjects were known to area law enforcement and suspected of being involved in drug distribution.

On 12/19/2014, the SCU obtained arrest warrants for the subjects involved. A multi jurisdiction arrest team comprised of the Barnstable Police Department, Mashpee Police Department, Yarmouth Police Department, Mass State Police, and Barnstable County Sheriff's Department responded to the Shanghai restaurant in an attempt to locate the wanted subjects. One of those subject was identified as Jeremiah Q Anderson, age 37, of Hyannis.
