NOTE FOR QUESTION #4:

“Have you ever been arrested or appeared in court as a defendant for any criminal offense?”

This is a broad question. It is not asking whether you were ever placed on trial or if you were convicted. It is simply asking whether or not you were ever charged with a crime. The fact that the case never went to trial, that it was ultimately dismissed or continued without a finding, that you were found not guilty, or that the offense occurred over fifty years ago, does not change the question – the charge will still show up in your background check and failing to disclose shall not only be just cause for denial, but may also subject you to civil and/or criminal penalties.

Please realize that some motor vehicle offenses are criminal. Examples of criminal traffic offenses include, but are not limited to, Operating Without a License, Operating After Suspension or Revocation, Operating To Endanger, Revoked Registration, Attaching Plates, Compulsory Insurance Violation, Abandoning a MV, and OUI (Operating Under The Influence).

If you have any questions, please ask. Be careful and thorough – it is better to include too much than not enough.
