Press Release

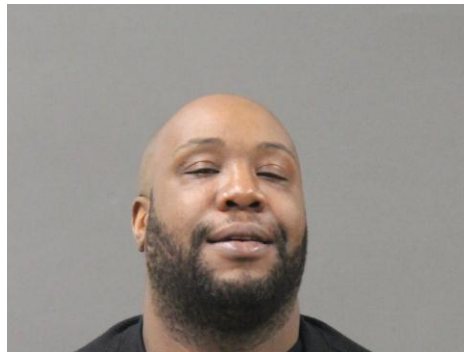

November 29, 2012

On November 29, 2012 a 35 year old Dorchester man, Marcel Young, was arrested in Hyannis for his involvement in a masked and armed home invasion.

On November 28, 2012 at approximately 2235hrs. Barnstable Police Officers responded to Nautical Road in Hyannis for a reported masked and armed home invasion. The victims, a 66 year old man and his 26 year old daughter, told officers that 2 males wearing masks had knocked on their door and forced their way into the house while pointing handguns at them. The suspects allegedly went through every room in the house looking for cash and marijuana. Another item taken was a family heirloom; silver notes from the early 1900's.

Two hours later Barnstable Police Officers responded to the Sea Side Pub in Hyannis for report of a male party, Marcel Young, attempting to pay with counterfeit money. Upon arrival officers were able to determine that the counterfeit money was actually the silver notes that had been taken in the home invasion just hours before. Mr. Young's physical description and clothing description also matched that of one of the suspects reported by the victims.

Mr. Young was taken into custody and booked at the Barnstable Police Headquarters for MASKED/ARMED HOME INVASION, ROBBERY WHILE ARMED WHILE MASKED. Mr. Young was arraigned on these charges at Barnstable District Court on November 29, 2012.
